We will be choosing participants based on having a diversity of horses in terms of age, gender, breed type and objective for your horse.

There is limited availability for overnight accommodations for your horse(s), so if you'd like to stay overnight, please discuss your needs with Dan Ruediger. We will also have nearby accommodations/availability at neighbor's farms as well. There will be "day" paddocks available for your horses so you can count on a place to rest your horse during the clinic.

Plan to attend throughout the day on both days as we will attend lectures and we will work with our horses will throughout the day. This is a USDF University accredited event, so we have to stick to the Hilltop/USDF schedule.

The cost is $110.00 per day ($220.00 for the weekend). Your spot will only be reserved by sending a check and this registration for to the address below. Auditor fees will be $50.00 for the weekend. Please make the check payable to "ODS". The proceeds will benefit the ODS Breeders Group, a division of ODS whose objective is to promote sporthorse education and breeding. Your check will be non-refundable for cancellations unless we can fill your reserved spot.

We will be e-mailing/faxing maps to Sonnenberg Farm a few days prior to the event.

We are very excited to have Hilltop Farm come to the west coast. This clinic is said to be a "must attend" for any handler interested in showing/working with sporthorses in-hand. Ultimately, proper in-hand work translates to a successful riding career.
