

North Willamette Valley Adult Amateur Camp

August 28 - 31, 2008

Adult Amateur Riders Only; Auditors are Welcome

Location: Future Street Farm, Bend Oregon.
You can visit Future Street Farm on line at www.futurestreetfarm.com

The camp is designed to be four days of fun and focused riding and learning with your horse.

For more information or to apply for this camp please contact:
Kathy Darneille, crosbycreek@canby.com, 503.982.1044

Instructors:

Hania Curjel Price, Currently teaching Dressage at Future Street Farm. She has been employed by and trained with Christine Stueckelberger and George Wahl in Switzerland. She still rides and trains in Switzerland every summer. Hania rides, trains and teaches through Prix St. George Level. She has received her USDF Bronze Medal and is a USDF Certified 4th Level Trainer & Instructor.

Bernadine Deirs, Currently training and teaching at Parker Stables in Sherwood. She comes from a diverse riding background and is a gifted teacher. She has been to Europe for training on Grand Prix Level horses. She has earned her USDF Bronze Medal.

Cavaletti for Dressage Riders. A fun small group class designed to increase the partnership between horse and rider by using small cavaletti and gymnastic exercises. The focus is on relaxation, rhythm, and correct balance of horse and rider. Riders will leave with new ideas and more confidence in themselves and their horses.

Michele Morseth, MA, GCFP " Sit the Trot! Movement Education & Body Awareness for Equestrians. She will be teaching an on the ground movement workshop and individual lunge lessons specially designed for dressage riders.

Food and Lodging: Food will be provided for people.
Participants have the options for FREE Camping at Future Street Farm.
12x12 Stalls for the horses in the main barn.
There is a "Full Kitchen" and "Real Bathrooms".